DIWALI GREETINGS - PAGE EIGHT

German Baroque Music For Shanzu Classical Concert

MUSIC LOVERS on the Kenya coast will be delighted to hear that two Classical Concerts are to be staged by the duo Schmaderer de Domenico at Mombasa Inter-Continental Resort on Friday and Saturday, October 30 and 31.

Sponsored by Bamburi Portland Cement Company, Lufthansa and the hotel they have given many successful concerts in Germany in other European countries and in Africa.

Over the years they have built up a wide repertoire ranging from early Baroque period up to the modern classic.

Their most recent concerts were at Nairobi's Hotel Inter-Continental and proceeds from their first at Mombasa Inter-Continental Resort, which takes place in the Ballroom on October 30, will go towards the Kwale School for the Mentally Handicapped which is doing a wonderful job but needs help in improving facilities..

ADMISSION

Admission is Shs 150/- per person. For those dining afterwards in the Frangipani Restaurant a discount of Shs 150/- is offered!

On Saturday, October 31, the concert will be enhanced by a fabulous five-course gourmet dinner in the Vasco da Gama Restaurant which includes smoked duck breast with pasta; beef consommé with mushroom dumplings; fresh water tilapia with olive crust; medallions of lamb Provençal with rosemary, and a dark chocolate mousse in a chocolate cage.

To sharpen the palate midway there is a Gold Passion Sorbet with Campari.

The gourmet dinner and concert is Shs 750/- per person and advance bookings are recommended.

Tickets for the charity concert on October 30 are available from the hotel, Jambo Boutique, Moi Avenue; Al-Shifa Chemists,

BANKING SERVICE AWARD

STRICTLY ADHERING to the epithet: "Honesty is the Best Policy in all Undertakings", always pays high dividends and enormously contributes to a good reputation.

It is this fact that has made that oldest ship-chandlers firm - The Muses Mohamed Company Limited winner of the Kenya Commercial Bank's long serving client of the Bank Award.

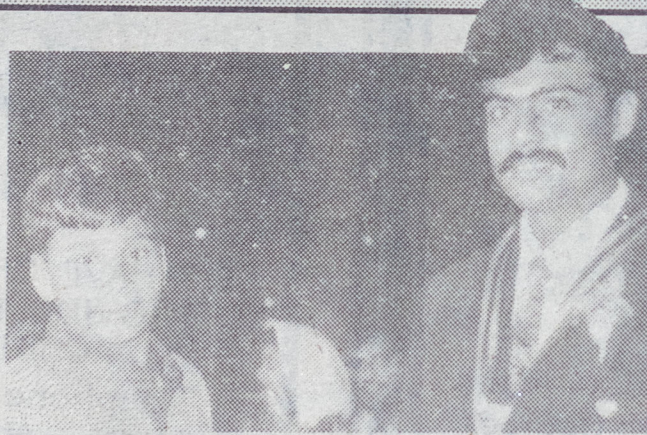

The reward was announced by the Executive Chairman of the K.C.B. Sheikh Ahmed Abdalla Mazrui at a party held at a Mombasa hotel.

Sheikh Mazrui learned from the recipient, Sheikh Mohamed Naaman Muses (the grandson of the founding father of the firm - Sheikh Muses Mohamed Ali) that the firm has been with the bank since 1888.

RECESSION HURTS TOURISM FROM EUROPE AS 'KENYA AIRWAYS' LAUNCH NEW FLIGHT

Boost For Charity From The Rotaract Club Of Kilindini

THE HIGHEST BIDDER (Shs. 30,000/-) for the return ticket Nairobi-London donated British Airways during Rotaract Club of Kilindini's International Night at the Reef Hotel went to Dhuru L. Shah of Arzi, Mombasa. His son Khilan is seen receiving it from the chairman Asgher Molu. It was a great bargain for the ticket is worth Shs. 59,165/-. It gave a big boost to the Club's aim of raising Shs. 300,000/- to rebuild Kwa Jomvu Health Centre.

THERE HAS BEEN, roughly, an overall drop in tourism to Kenya of around 20 per cent during the Summer 1992 Season and no improvement is expected during the Winter Season with some charter airlines decreasing or suspending flights into Mombasa.

Predictions for 1993 are that it is going to be a very slow year tourism-wise.

This was revealed at a recent committee meeting of the Mombasa and Coast Tourist Association at the Oceanic Hotel under the chairmanship of Zul Harunani.

By NETA PEAL

Other long-haul destinations affected by a drop in tourism include Cuba and Thailand, while Sri Lanka is booming.

While contributory factors in the UK to this slump in tourism in Kenya have been recession and negative press publicity, as far as Germany is concerned this is attributed solely to the latter for with the exception of Kenya the volume of tourism increased during 1992.

However, all is not gloom, as Kenya Airways starts operating a once weekly direct flight

Ratna Square and COASTWEEK.

In 1965 Kathleen de Domenico won the 'National Maltese Pianists Competition' and a scholarship at the Music Academy of Saarbrucken, Germany.

There she studied for three years with Professor Walter Blankenheim, and from 1968 to 1974 with Professor Rosi Schmid at the Music Academy of Munich, graduating with the Diploma 'Kunstlerische Staatsprüfung'. She finished her studies in 1974 with a Master-class Diploma.

Kathleen represented her country at the World Expo 70 in Osaka, Japan, and for the past few years has been concentrating on chamber music.

Cornelius Schmaderer was born in Munich in 1957 and his musical education included one year of intensive study at the Mozarteum in Salzburg with Professor Wilfred Tachezi and was the cello primo of the Austrian Junior Orchestra there.

He completed his State Examination in Munich in 1981 and obtained his Diploma as a qualified music teacher at the German High School.

He then continued his studies with Professor Helmar Stiehler at the Music Academy of Munich and finished with the Concert Diploma in 1984.

He then became a member of the State Orchestra of Kassel, Germany.

In 1987 he was additionally appointed teacher at the Music Academy there. He has attended master classes with Arto Noras, Mischa Maisky, Heinrich Schiff and the Beaux-Arts Trio.

BARCELONA OLYMPICS 1992 (2ND SERIES) STAMPS

The focus for 25th Olympiad was in Barcelona Spain. The Olympic Games were one of many International events and celebrations which took place in Spain. It was an occasion for a wide range of social, cultural, artistic and sporting events which were watched by millions of people from every corner of the globe.

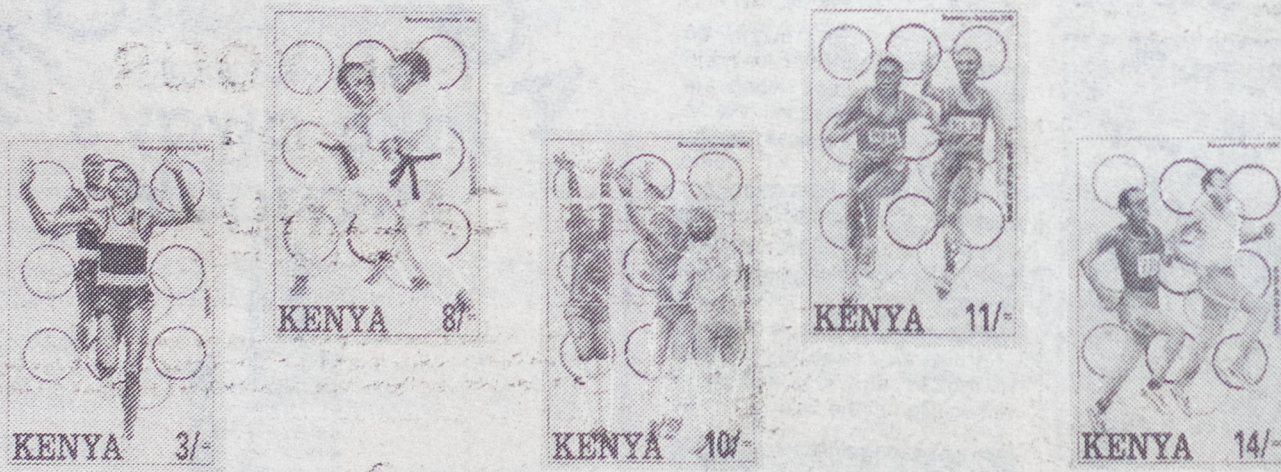

The Barcelona Games 1992 fulfilled the reestablishment of the eternal Olympic spirit of promoting world peace and harmony and the universal brotherhood of man whereby all fine athletes in the world come together in free and open competition.

Kenya as one of the participating nations, featured in track and field, boxing, wrestling; weight lifting, judo and shooting. The Kenyans finished 21st overall with two gold, four silver and two bronze medals.

Kenya Posts and Telecommunications on 14th August, 1992 issued a second series of five stamps to commemorate the end of the games.

The stamps depict the following:

- Shs. 3/= - Winning
- Shs. 8/= - Judo (men)
- Shs. 10/= - Women Volleyball
- Shs. 11/= - 4 x 100 metres relay (men)
- Shs. 14/= - 10,000 metres (men)

However due to reasons beyond our control the stamps will only be made available for sale to the public with effect from 9th October, 1992 but cancellations will retain the official release date of 14th August, 1992.

The Rotaract Club Of Kilindini's "International Night" Raises Shs. 100,000/= Plus For Charity

THE ROTARACT Club of Kilindini's first International Night was a great success and has so far raised Shs. 105,000/- towards the rehabilitation of the Kwa Jomvu Health Centre, and giving this fund-raising effort a big boost was a World Traveller class ticket Nairobi-London, donated by British Airways.

Worth Shs 59,165/- it fetched Shs. 30,000/- in an auction - the highest and lucky bidder being Dhuru L. Shah of 'Arzi', Mombasa.

He was also the highest bidder (Shs 7,000/-) for a balloon safari in the Maasai Mara donated by Adventures Afloat.

International Night at Mombasa's

Reef Hotel attracted some 170 guests among them being Abdulmajid Aboo, chairman of the Rotary Club of Kilindini, who congratulated Asgher Molu, Rotaract chairman, and members for the outstanding job they had done.

He wished them "all the best" in achieving their target of Shs. 300,000/- for the Kwa Jomvu Health Centre which he considered, a most meaningful project.

He also mentioned that in March, Rotaract will be celebrating its 25th year during a 'Rotaract Week'.

The hotel put in a tremendous effort in setting up this International Night in a moonlit garden with illuminated trees and buffets attractively presented and offering a mouth-watering selection of international cuisine, while one table was entirely devoted to seafood specialities.

Luring many guests to this function were Sachin (13) and Avni (10) giving their first performance in Mombasa in support of this Rotaract project.

They had travelled from Nairobi to give their services free of charge inspired by what their grandfather, Kariprasad Dave, had told them about helping less fortunate members of the community and to enhance goodwill.

They come from a family with a strong musical background and so far have helped raise Shs two million for the physically disabled.

Their first cassette with 14 renditions of instrumental music entitled 'For the Young 'n' not so Young' was launched by the former Minister of Health, Mwai Kibaki, in October 1991, in aid of the Jaipur Foot Project.

Their next 'For the Young and Young at Heart' was initiated by Nakuru's Amu Shah, Governor of Lions Club District 411, who told them about the millions suffering from 'curable' blindness in the world and of their project to help such people launched in July this year.

Also entertaining was the hotel's versatile Assistant Manager, Amer Amour, (meaning 'immortal' and 'love') who had just returned from a successful interview with Ralph Siegel - a top show businessman in Germany who also manages building singers.

Ralph will be writing some songs for Amer which he will be recording in Munich, Germany, next year.

Amer who describes himself as a 'Pop' singer has also entertained at some of the Super Shows staged by African Safari Club at Starion Nightclub, and is very popular at the Reef.

There was also a sexy Segga

Dance by Rtr. Irene and friends, while music during the evening was provided by the talented Vikings Band.

Among those enjoying International Night were Rtn Felix De Costa, District Rotaract Youth Officer, Rtn Anil Dodia, Youth Committee Chairman, and many other Rotarians, Rotaractors and guests.

Said the chairman Asgher Molu, 'three months ago the Senior

Oshwal Students In U.K.

A VERY HIGH proportion of the Oshwal Secondary School students who passed their London G.C.E. 'A' Level examination held in June, 1992 have gained admittance to various Universities and Polytechnics in the United Kingdom.

Those students who have already left for the United Kingdom to take up the places offered include the following:

Ketan Shukla at University of Warwick to study Maths (operational research with statistics), Seema Shah at University of Manchester to study Business Management, Roopesh P. Shah at Brighton University to study Pharmacy, Rakhee J. Shah at Aston University to study Business Administration, Priya P. Shah at University of Warwick to study Business Administration, and Neema Shah at Aston University to study Business Administration.

Also Minesh J. Shah at City University to study Business Administration, Milan Shah at Brighton University to study Business Studies, Khilal Shah at University of Cardiff to study Business Management, with Finance. Kajal Shah at University of Cardiff to study Business Management, with Finance, Kalpen Patel at Manchester University to study Pharmacy, Rajul Maide at City University to study Business Management, Parul Khimasia at Manchester University to study Business Management, and Jiten S. Shah at Bristol University to study Economics.

The Headmaster Mr. M.N. Joseph thanked the Ministry of Education for issuing the students with the 'No Objection Certificate' quickly and the Central Bank of Kenya for approving the release of foreign exchange promptly RECEIVING LOTS of applause during International Night at Reef Hotel was its Assistant Manager, Amer Amour (meaning 'immortal' and 'love') who is making quite a name for himself as a 'Pop' singer.

Medical Officer, Mombasa Municipal Council approached us and asked if we could help with the rehabilitation of the Kwa Jomvu Health Centre.

After seeing its pathetic state the Club decided to help and appointed Rtr Muffazal Yusufali Project Governor.

Amid cheers, he said 'from what I can see here tonight I am sure it is by far the best project of this Rotaract Club'.

COAST ACADEMY TO PRESENT "H.M.S. PINAFORE" OPERETTA ...

COAST ACADEMY ARE pleased to be able to present Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta H.M.S. Pinafore, as part of the L.T.C. Ruby Jubilee.

The show opens on Wednesday October 28 and runs until Saturday 31. In this version, arranged for middle and junior high schools, pupils from Standard Six through to Form Five have been busy rehearsing over the past few months.

This is the fifth Coast Academy musical produced by Dominique Schep, with Yvonne Edge as musical director.

Audiences may remember other very successful shows, Captain Noah, Oliver, The Boyfriend and, last year, Tom Sawyer. Tickets are selling fast, so book now to avoid disappointment.

Heads Of Aga Khan Schools Meet At Conference In Mara

IT WAS TRULY A lobal affair when the heads of Aga Khan Schools and Executive Officers from Kenya, Pakistan, India and Tanzania met at Ol Kurruk Mara Lodge from October 1-3, 1992. The Conference facilitator was Des Pearce from AKES Tanzania and the theme of the conference was "Head Teachers as Staff Developers". Valuable contributions were made by participants from all countries. Attending from Mombasa were Zul Jamal of Kensec, M. Lavingia of Aga Khan High, A. Chaudhry of Aga Khan Primary and N. Jamal of Aga Khan Nursery Schools.

A Family From Former "East Germany" Enjoy First Foreign Holiday

OVERWHELMED BY the beauty of Kenya, her friendly people and the lovely L.T.I. Kaskazi Beach Hotel, Diana, were a family from East Germany, winners of a competition in Bild am Sonntag, the largest Sunday paper in Germany with more than five million readers.

Their prize was a two week holiday in Kenya sponsored by Jahn Reisen, Kaskazi Beach Hotel, L.T.U. and A.T. and H.

The family are Peter and Bettina Reichenbaecher, and children Jana and Enrico from Thuehringen, East Germany.

Of interest is the fact that according to Jahn Reisen's Resident Manager, Jurgen Deckmann, 10 per cent of their bookings for Kenya are now from East Germany.

Bettina was particularly impressed by the 'nice buffets and great variety of salads' at Kaskazi Hotel, while Peter was also enthusiastic about Kenya's Pilsner Beer.

With travel being so difficult in the past from East Germany, it was the first long-haul holiday for the Reichenbaecher's to have outside Germany.

A T and H took them on safari to Tsavo East where they were thrilled to see a great variety of Kenya's Wildlife. Their only disappointment was in not seeing a rhino.

They also had a conducted tour of Mombasa which included the nearly 400 year old Fort Jesus, also other places of historic and cultural interest.

Said Bettina 'it has been a wonderful holiday and we will tell our friends about what a lovely country Kenya is, and how we have been so well looked after in the beautiful Kaskazi Hotel.

Kenya has received much hospitality in Bild am Sonntag in respect of this competition, and there will obviously be more when Peter and Bettina return to tell them about their super holiday.

WITH FREEDOM ONCE AGAIN to travel abroad, the Reichenbaecher family from the former East Germany was thrilled to bits to find they had won a competition in "Bild am Sonntag," the largest Sunday paper in Germany, the prize being a two week holiday in Kenya. It was their first long-haul holiday outside of Germany. Their holiday sponsors were Jahn Reisen, LTI Kaskazi Beach Hotel, LTU and African Tours and Hotels. Peter Reichenbaecher (who loves Kenya's Pilsner beer) is seen second right, and his wife, Bettina (second left), together with their two children Jana and Enrico. They were enjoying a welcome drink offered by the hotel's General Manager, Hans Wittwer (left). Right is Faith Nyerangi, Guest Services Manager.

Wonderful Year For Exciting New Drama And Dance At Coast

THE LITTLE THEATRE Club is certainly honouring its promise to offer a many-varied programme during this its Ruby Anniversary year.

To date there have been nine productions, Educating Rita, an evening of classical music, Fringe Benefits, The Mermaid's Tale, Stepping Out, Shirley Valentine, a gala buffet dinner-dance and cabaret, Race Time and Run For Your Wife.

The last production Run For Your Wife by Ray Cooney was yet another roaring success and congratulations go to director Beverly Herd and her talented cast.

The pace and action were fast and fun and the audience were left helplessly begging for a chance to catch their breath before the next bout of laughter caught them unawares!

MICHAEL HUGHES

Michael Hughes is a real comedian and revels in the more "slap-stick" elements of such farces.

Sean Gavaghan has gained in experience and stage skills and tackled his role with great enthusiasm.

Perry Turner and Michael Price-Hughes were most convincing Police Sergeants and brought great humour to their parts.

Mike Beckett excelled as the "Gay" neighbour and on one particular night the audience were crying with laughter and finding it rather difficult to remain seated.

Penny Holding and Jean Koch were delightful "wives" and had both fully entered into the spirit of their roles by colouring their hair.

Penny became a glamorous red-head and Jean a rather shocking blonde.

The back-stage crew must also be commended for their efforts. Mahmood Ahmed was a very diligent stage manager, props by Nellie Riegger were well organised and make-up by Dominique Schep was most skilfully applied.

It is, in fact, Dominique Schep who is producing the Club's next production H.M.S. Pinafore.

The participants are all students of the Coast Academy and musical direction is by Yvonne Edge.

Following hard on the heels of H.M.S. Pinafore is another wonderful musical by the genius, Andrew Lloyd Webber.

Last year Jean Koch did an adaptation of the Lloyd Webber musical Cats (kittens) and earlier this year of Starlight Express (Race Time) and now comes Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat.

This is a most marvellous light-hearted musical which tells the biblical story of Joseph.

The story line is conveyed by the Narrator and singing this demanding role is talented and vibrant Jacqui Freeman.

Starring as Joseph is Tony Armitage. This will be Tony's first major role at the L.T.C.

Musical direction is by Yvonne Edge and Philippe Zimmerlin.

More details about this action-packed fun-loving musical in next week's COASTWEEK.

MUSICIANS WANTED

By the Little Theatre Club for their production of Joseph and his amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat to run from 20-28 November clarinet, trumpet, string bass or bass guitar. Anyone interested please contact Philippe Zimmerlin on tel. 313470/485884 as soon as possible.

GEMINI STARCAST

SCORPIO October 21 - November 20

Partners are likely to be better company, more supportive and reasonable than friends, so you will be happiest if you can spend more time with them. Together you could find the solution to a problem. Your lucky number is four.

SAGITTARIUS November 21 - December 20

This is an excellent time for getting on with things, and you have more mental as well as physical energy than usual. Things at work though, won't happen fast enough for you, and you could feel rather frustrated.

CAPRICORN December 21 - January 20

If you can stick to the company of people you know well, and not get carried away by big ideas, today looks as though it will be a successful and happy week for you. Romantic interest is indicated on Friday.

AQUARIUS January 21 - February 20

Just carry on quietly and successfully with what you have to do, and don't take too much notice of what anyone else has to say about it. You probably know best now. Your lucky number is three.

PISCES February 21 - March 20

You will be in an energetic mood, and will be quite willing to get straight down to things, but don't expect a partner to appreciate your efforts, they are probably too deeply involved in their own problems. Mind your health.

ARIES March 21 - April 20

Somehow you don't seem to be able to turn all the good things about this week to your advantage, although you are very alert mentally. Perhaps it's because you might not have a lot of physical energy. Tuesday shows change.

TAURUS April 21 - May 20

The only person you can rely on this week, with any faith is yourself, and a partner can make things even more difficult by being in an argumentative mood. You will be able to work with your mind. New scenes are likely mid-week.

GEMINI May 21 - June 20

Someone may act rather defensively towards you, and before you take up the challenge, consider what it is that you really want to achieve from the situation. A solid scene financially.

CANCER June 21 - July 20

You should be able to talk people around to your point of view if they are being at all open-minded and reasonable, although this is not necessarily the case. Thursday sees romantic interest.

LEO July 21 - August 20

Monday could be rather a nasty time for dealing with important money matters or influential people who are likely to affect your financial life. Routine jobs though should go well. The number seven is significant.

VIRGO August 21 - September 20

A partner could feel weighed down by responsibility, or you could feel that they are expecting much too much of you. Which ever way it is, it is not conducive to a tranquil life. Travel is indicated.

LIBRA September 21 - October 20

Tuesday is perhaps your worst time when you feel you are being criticised unfairly, or you will realise that you have to re-do something you have been working quite hard on. Financially a time for restraint.

Mombasa's Top Secretaries Check Out Facilities At The New "Indian Ocean Beach Club" On Diani

IT WAS A SIGHT for sore eyes seeing usually sedate Mombasa secretaries gambolling around on the beach, for the occasion was a 'nice day's outing' to the new Indian Ocean Beach Club, Diani (which opens on November 14) promised to them by the General Manager, Nyali Beach Hotel, John Mutua, several months ago.

All are members of the hotel's popular Secretaries Club and it was the largest group so far to visit IOBC, with Nyali's outside catering service providing a sumptuous buffet lunch, bar and waiter service.

Leading the team from Nyali, who included two animators, was John Mutua, all attired in colourful leisure clothes.

They, altogether with the IOBC team, not only looked after these secretaries but organised fun-games on the beautiful white sand beach which included tug-of-war and sack racing.

Prizes for the winners, including teams, were T-shirts, wine, cake and chocolates.

They travelled in style to IOBC (40kms south of Mombasa Island) in two air-conditioned UTC buses and there to welcome them in the lobby was the Club's General Manager, Mark Holden, and his management team, a floral decorated thirst quenching drink, while music was provided by the Best Five Band.

Joining them from Block Hotels, Nairobi, were Fatma Muses, Sales Manager and Fatma Pandey, Sales Executive.

The main purpose of the trip was to promote Nyali Beach Hotel and the Indian Ocean Beach Club.

By NETA PEAL

Considerable interest is being shown by tour operators and travel agents both from home and overseas.

It is understood there has been a huge response as far as bookings are concerned.

Recently, top executives and managers at IOBC completed a week-long training programme conducted by a veteran hotelier, Brian Saword, Group Training Manager for Block Hotels sister hotel company - Malawi Hotels.

Mombasa secretaries were 'over the moon with excitement' at this dreamy holiday resort, describing it as 'fantastically beautiful' and a wonderful place to get away from it all and relax.

ROSE NYARANGI, SALES MANAGER, Indian Ocean Beach Club gives a demonstration on how to achieve ultimate comfort in a Planter's Chair using the leg supporters. It was to members of the Nyali Beach Hotel Secretaries Club who were on a day's outing there which included a tour of Block Hotels latest development. Also seen is Daphine Nzioka, Sales Manager, Shimba Lodge.

They also noted that all de-luxe cottages are sea facing.

They adored the huge 2x2 metre double beds with suspended mosquito nets which can be draped above during the day, and heard that they can be converted into two single units if so desired.

When puzzled about the Planter's Chair, Rose Nyarangi, the Club's Sales Manager, gave a demonstration of how to be completely comfortable in one, using the leg supporters!

BUFFET LUNCH

After a very satisfying and enjoyable buffet lunch which included BBQ'd meat and lobster, some had enough energy left to dance the Chakacha on the al-fresco shuffle area near the swimming pool, including Willy Mwadilo, Nyali's Assistant Food and Beverage Manager, while Zainab Busaidy, Trade Bank's Marketing Executive, joined the Best Five Band to sing 'Diana' which she dedicated to John Mutua to thank he and his team, on behalf of everyone, for such a wonderful outing.

Such was the applause that Zainab fled straight into the swimming pool!

MARK HOLDEN

Mr. Mutua, in thanking Zainab, asked everyone to join him in giving three cheers to Mark Holden and his team, for making the day such a great success.

Situated on a 29-acre site, with plenty of room for expansion, the 100 airy deluxe cottages, some in one-storeyed Lamu-style houses, spaciouly stand facing a most magnificent powder white-sand beach.

All have split level air-conditioning which automatically switches on when all windows and doors are shut.

The colour scheme in the rooms of aquamarine and blue was inspired by the Indian Ocean.

Sub-Saharan Association Of International Schools Meeting Up In Mombasa

ONE HUNDRED delegates from the Association of International Schools in Africa - a professional body representing around 75 schools in sub-Saharan Africa - met together at Mombasa Inter-Continental Resort for a two day Administrators' Conference.

It was presided by a reception on the hotel's Pool Terrace where they were officially welcomed by Dr. Robert Ambrogi, Senior Staff Member, International Schools Service, New Jersey, USA, and had the opportunity of meeting the Aisa President, Tom Hunt from Libreville, Gabon.

Among them were many Americans and dropping in to say 'Hi' was Brigadier General Frank Libutti, Commander of the US Joint Task Force Provide Relief which since August 21 has been flying famine relief to four drought stricken areas in Somalia and northern Kenya.

He invited them, if they could find time, to come and see their operation at Moi International Airport.

He also mentioned that the hotel was providing a 24 hour catering service there which was greatly appreciated by the troops.

Aisa member schools in Kenya include International Schools in Nairobi and Kisumu, Rosslyn Academy, Rift Valley Academy, Aga Khan Academy, St. Mary's and Peponi Secondary School.

They attract children of many nationalities including those whose parents are attached to Embassies, United Nations or multi-national companies who are often posted to different parts of the world.

Many of the schools have American or British based curriculums, while down south they tend to have a Southern African type curriculum.

The largest member school is at Dar-es-Salaam with 1500 students.

Aisa provides professional development and sponsors several conferences a year.

The one for Administrators in Mombasa will be followed a week later by one in Nairobi for around 300 teachers from schools in East Africa, then by one in Abidjan, Cote d'Ivoire for around another 250 teachers from West African schools.

Said Constance W. Buford, Executive Director 'we held a conference at this hotel in 1989 and had a lovely time.

BUFORD, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, Association of International Schools in Africa (left) is seen with some of the delegates to the Administrators' Conference at Mombasa Inter-Continental Resort which opened with a reception on the Pool Terrace. ## "Dudu's", "Mermaids", "Fast Cats" From Zanzibar And Three Different Spar Types MAGOS, SHE'S THE ONE with the inward bound 52,500 tonnes bulk maize, remains at the C3 buoys. I understand there's a little problem with the consignment being infested with dudu's. Fumigation's probably the answer, but then you're left with having to pick all the dead dudu's out. Not a small task when you consider that there's 52,500 tonnes of the grain to sieve or sift through.

The Nadj II, the itinerant labour carrier is still up at one of the Port Reitz anchorages, awaiting various problems to be sorted out between the owners, the charterers and others.

She's been causing a number of headaches for all concerned, however I believe that another vessel will shortly be arriving to tranship the 'passengers' and take them to their final destination.

What I'm not sure of is whether the arrival of the transhipping vessel will alleviate the problem or just add fuel to the fire, so to speak. Because part of the present problem was that a number of her crew came ashore and refused to return onboard whilst the 'passengers' were there.

So it was a question of, either the 'passengers' come off, and we go back or vice versa. What happens if part of the transhipping vessel's crew decided likewise. We shall see.

The intention incidentally, is or was to use the transporting vessel as a sort of 'floatel' for the workers at Acapulco for the duration of the construction project. Still there won't be too much left if they keep on bustin' things.

Cointreausoundalike, Scanro should by now have arrived and left after discharging 93 forty foot and loading 70 twenty foot containers.

Another biggish consignment of bulk maize will be arriving toward the month end aboard the Panamanian registered bulker, naturally, Merit which is listed as carrying 47,500 tonnes of the stuff.

The Merit started off life in 1969 as the Emma Oldendorff, that long established German shipping firm. She kept her name until 1985, when she became known as the Maria B 87, thence becoming the Merit in 1991.

Little tow job performed the other day by the Divecon tender Surveyor which took the KPA mooring boat MB3 undertow. Don't suppose Lloyds Open Form was involved, more likely just a case of 'Oi, gi us a hand'.

Fast cat. Tanzanian ferry, Flying Horse left the S.E.C.O. dock yard on Sunday, and undertook engine trials within the harbour before dropping the hook opposite the New Outrigger Hotel, creating quite a pleasant sight from the usual mundane vessels entering and leaving Kilindini.

The locally based supply vessel Fish Eagle returned on Saturday afternoon complete with two barges whose cargo had been discharged just South of Mogadishu. The Java Adventurer left for same destination earlier last week.

Both vessels are under charter to the L.C.R.C. and have been for some time now, especially the Fish Eagle.

Now I don't know whether you believe in mermaids, but I'm beginning to have a change of opinion. For a mermaid in the form of "Corina" visited the salvage tug Bison 1 this past Wednesday, and stayed for lunch!

Some strange antics were being carried out to a couple of vessels this week.

The tanker DK II decided that either the propeller or rudder needed looking at, and so she was ballasted head-down, and quite severely too. For she actually appeared as though she was 'going down'.

NUMBER FIVE

Then the Iris taking on a starboard list whilst at B anchorage, after having completed discharge of her 7000 tonnes bagged wheat at Number Five.

Endeavour Shippings Maltese registered 16940 DWT bulk carrier Victor arrived during the course of Wednesday afternoon to take on bunkers and fresh water before continuing passage.

Busy loading fluorspar at Mbaraki, is the Avon Delta.

There are, I believe three different types of spar. Flourite, Blue John and Derbyshire, and it's used as a flux in steel making, opaque and opalescent glass as well as resistant enamels and optical instruments.

The natural approach to Mt Kenya.

Surrounded by Nature's splendour, Naro Moru River Lodge is only a few kilometres from Mt Kenya. Here, you can do whatever comes naturally. Try fly-fishing for trout, exploring the fertile slopes of the mountain or, if you're of a more adventurous nature, take a seven-day technical climb to the majestically rugged peaks of Mt Kenya.

Superb accommodation, experienced porters and guides, complete equipment rentals and all the best nature has to offer.

Naturally, your first approach to the mountain is a call to Naro Moru River Lodge.

Kenya Kongoni XI Renew Traditional Cricket Match With Mombasa Sports

ONE OF KENYA'S traditional cricket fixtures, that has not been contested for many years, was revived last Saturday when Kenya Kongonis visited Mombasa Sports Club.

After a gruelling days play, the visitors emerged as easy winners by 11 runs.

Having won the toss and electing to bat, Kongoni skipper David Waters and Johnson scored freely, with 64 runs coming in the first 10 overs. After Johnson was out for 23, the scoring rate was showed down due to a good spell from Huzeifa Maloo.

Shakil Vayani, who finished with four for 66, took three quick wickets, but Waters continued to dominate the innings, driving any overpitched ball strongly, before being fifth man out at 164 runs.

His personal contribution was a fine 105 runs, containing 14 boundaries.

At this stage, Sports Club might have hoped to finish the innings early, but in spite of two wickets each from Jeff Harvey and Jayesh Patel, Kongonis finished their 50 overs at 286 for nine wickets, helped by Potter (32), McBride (32) and Davidson (28).

In reply, Sports Club had a fairly bright start, until Harish Shah retired for 20 runs.

Jayesh (28) and Mehboob (54) saw up the 100 in 20 overs, but the remaining batsmen were not able to accelerate.

Tight bowling by Potter (three for 31), Toye (two for 19) and Rajab Ali (one for 23) controlled the game for Kongonis and Caltensed took the last two wickets to put the home side all out for 175 in the 48th over.

On Sunday, an internal game ended in a seven wicket win for Jeff Harvey's XI over Shakil Vayani's XI.

Batting first, Shakil's side were restricted to 115 runs, only Kamlesh Bhatt (40) making a good contribution.

The main wicket takers were Arif Fazal (two for 22), Jeff Harvey (two for 17) and Asif Khan (three for 17).

In reply, openers Jeff Harvey and Jasmer Singh each scored 38 runs, before both being out to Imtiaz, but Jayesh (19 not out) saw his team home by seven wickets, in 19 overs.

TOYOTA POLO TOURNEY WINNERS

THE AUSTRIAN AIRLINES AND TOYOTA teams dominated the very successful International Polo Tournament, sponsored by Toyota Kenya for the fourth year running, which ended at the Nairobi Polo Club's Jamhuri Park ground last Sunday. Austrian Airlines won the junior tournament the previous weekend and Toyota were the runners-up. In the senior event, which finished last Saturday, Toyota won and Austrian Airlines were the runners-up. Toyota also defeated Austrian Airlines by seven goals to six in the high-goal exhibition match on Sunday which featured five international players. The victorious Toyota team, which won the high-goal exhibition match, seen with the Toyota Trophy and Jan Thoenes, centre, Toyota Kenya's managing director. The team members are (from left) Richard Stone-Wigg; team captain, Will Lucas; James Lucas and Jonathan Savage.

American Runners Join Up With Hash

THE HASH OF last Saturday truly displayed an international flavour as seven American runners participated. These runners are part of the American contingent currently in Mombasa to assist in the relief operation in Somalia.

Amazingly only one American had "hashed" before and the remaining six participated in a hash run for the first time. This goes to show that there are many things Kenyans can teach the Americans!

As if this was not enough Simba also gave a lecture on the Geopolitical situation of the world and many were convinced that either Simba was round the bend or that Kissinger had made gross miscalculations.

Funnily the Kenyan hashers favoured Kissinger whilst the Americans voted for Simba. Hashing does lead to crazy situations sometimes.

The mushmoroni terrain in Nguu Tatu is ideal for hashing and Gorilla's run was no exception. In the first half "falsies" were many and the mob were bunched fairly closely together.

The second half however saw big gaps between the front and back runners as the likes of Merchant, Kangaroo, Rawal Twin and Burhan packed up speed, Mashii and Lubricant were seen in their favourite positions in the middle.

The run had several hill climbs and a fairly lengthy trek through tall grass. All in all it was a good hash appreciated by all and thanks to Gorilla.

The on-on began at Westend Bar continued at Manor and ended at United Sports Club. The Americans were awarded down-downs and everybody had fun.

Next Saturday, October 24, 1992 there will be a bash run and the next hash to be set by Marathon Man will be on Saturday October 31, 1992. Meet at Manor at 4.30 pm sharp.

Our Heritage Of Faith

"ARE YOU PRAYING or Playing?" It has been said that it is not the position of one praying but the condition of the heart that makes praying prayer or play.

It is not words we use for if our heart is not in our words then our words are certainly not coming from our hearts but our mouths.

"These people draw near to me with their mouth, and honour me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching the Doctrines and Commandments of men." (Matthew 15:8-9).

S.D. Gordon has said that: "The greatest thing anyone can do for God and for man is to pray". John Wesley declared that God does nothing except through prayer.

I believe prayer is focusing on God through Jesus Christ out of a pure heart!

"If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me". (Psalms

"Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that you may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much". (James 5:16).

Prayer was never meant to be used to summon God merely for the gratification of our whims, but to be a way of life, a binding necessity in the lives of men and nations.

Prayer becomes a play when it is regarded as a formalized routine of words, a refuge for weaklings, or a childish petition for material things.

We sadly undervalue prayer when we conceive it in these terms.

It has been said: "We lie to God in Prayer, if we don't rely on Him after prayer!" Prayer must be based on God's mercy and not on our own merits.

DIWALI GREETINGS

A Happy Festival Of Joy And Jubilation !

IF THERE IS one occasion which is all joy and all jubilation for one and all - the young and the old, men and women - for the entire Hindu world, it is Deepavali - the Festival of Lights. Even the humblest of huts will be lighted by a row of earthen lamps. Crackers resound and light up the earth and the sky.

The faces of boys and girls glow with a rare charm in their dazzling hues and colours. Illumination Deepotsavas - in temples and all sacred places of worship and on the banks of rivers symbolise the scattering of spiritual radiance all round from these holy centres.

The radiant sight of everybody with new and bright clothes, especially ladies decorated with the beat of ornaments, captures the social mood at its happiest.

And all this illumination and fireworks, joy and festivity, is to signify the victory of divine forces over those of wickedness.

Narakaasura was a demon king ruling over Praagiyotishapura (the present-day Assam) by virtue of his powers and boons secured from God, he became all-conquering.

Power made him swollen-headed.

The Gods headed by Devendra implored Sri Krishna whose social dignity, Sri Krishna gave all of them the status of his wives.

After the slaying of Narakaasura Sri Krishna bathed himself smearing his body with oil in the early morning of Chaturdashi.

Hence the invigorating vogue of taking an early oil-bath on that day.

Mother Earth, whose son Narakaasura was, requested Sri Krishna that the day be celebrated as one of jubilation. Sri Krishna granted the request and since then the tradition has continued.

Mother Earth reconciled herself to the loss of her son and knowing as she did that the Lord had punished her son for the sake of the welfare of the world, she set a glowing example of how one has to brush aside one's personal joys and sorrows in the interest of society.

DELIVERANCE

It is deliverance of the people from the clutches of the Asuras that fill the people with joy.

Then follows Amaavaasya, the new moon day, auspicious for offers prayers and gratitude to the bygone ancestors of the Dwaaraka (in the present-day Gujarat) to come to their rescue. Sri Krishna responded.

He marched from the western end of the country to its eastern end, Praagiyotishapura, destroyed the huge army which opposed him and finally beheaded Narakaasura himself. The populace was freed from the oppressive tyranny and all heaved a sigh of relief.

The 16,000 women kept in captivity by the demon king were freed.

With a view to removing any stigma on them and according family and invoking their memories and blessings for treating the path of right conduct.

This is also the sacred occasion for the worship of Mahaa Lakshmi, the Goddess of Wealth and Prosperity. The business community open their New Year's account with Her covered the entire earth, with the second he covered the outer sky, and asked Bali where he should keep his third step.

Bali, left with no other choice, showed his own head.

Sri Vishnu placed his foot on Bali's head and pushed him down to the netherworld, the rightful territory of Bali's reign.

However, Bali prayed to the Lord that he might be permitted to visit the earth once a year.

DECORATION

Now it was the turn of Vishnu to grant the boon. And the people too offer their love and respect to him on this day.

The annual visit of Bali is celebrated in Kerala as Cham.

It is the most popular festival for Kerala where every Hindu home receives him with floral decorations and lights and festoons adorn all public places.

Onam, however, falls on the FINE EXAMPLE of 'Rangoli' prepared for 'Diwali'.

Worship 'Dharmaadharthashcha Kaamashcha...' It is through right conduct that wealth and fulfilment of desires also accrue.

In northern parts of Bharat Deepavali is associated with the return of Sri Rama to Ayodhya, over-whelmed with joy, welcomed Rama through jubilation and illumination of the entire Capital.

Well has it been said that while Sri Rama unified the north and south of our country, Sri Krishna unified the west and east. Sri Rama and Sri Krishna together therefore symbolise the grand unity of our motherland.

The third day, that is, the first of Kaartik, is named Bailprapada, after the demon king Bali, the ruler of Paataala (the netherworld), who had extended his kingdom over the earth also.

On this day, Sri Vishnu, taking the form of a dwarfish Brahmin by name Vaamana, approached Bali, for a boon of space equal to his three steps.

Bali, known for his charity, gladly granted the boon, Vaamana now grew into a gigantic form; with one step he 16th day of Aavaani (Sowramaana) in September.

The Pratipada is also the day for Govardhana Pooja and Anna Koota (head of grains), the former signifying to Govardhana episode in Sri Krishna's life and the latter conveying affluence and prosperity.

The fourth and final day is Yama Dwiteeya, also called Bahu Beej. It is a most touching moment for the family members when even distant brothers reeach their sisters to strengthen that holy tie.

ETERNITY

The sister applies tilak and waves aarti to her brother, and the brother offers loving presents to the sister.

To the Jains, Deepavali has an added significance of the great event of Mahaaveera attaining the Eternal Bliss of Nirvaana.

The passing into Eternity on the same Amaavaasya of Swami Dayananda Saraswati, that Leonine sanyasin who was one of the first to light the torch of Hindu Renaissance during the last century, and of Swami Ramatirtha who carried the fragrance of the spiritual message of Hindu Dharma to the western world, have brought the national-cum-spiritual tradition of Deepavali right up to modern times.

Seasons' Greetings To All The Hindus ...

TODAY is a Special Day, in each and every way. Diwali is here, come what may, this season's greetings to all the Hindus.

Be happy, be cool and hang loose, forget the worries and tensions, leave the fears and frustrations.

Time for gifts and special decorations, time for light and fireworks and family celebrations,

Hope your Diwali is delightful, that's filled with a world of good cheer, with plenty of good fortune, enough for all the year, and

Then may health and sunshine, with other good things too, bring joy throughout the New Year, that lies ahead for you, Happy Diwali to You.

Kenya Airways Launching Weekly Flight Mombasa-Johannesburg Direct Service

FROM PAGE ONE

Johannesburg-Mombasa commencing Monday, October 26 with an Airbus they have wet-leased.

Journalists from South Africa will be coming here for a brief 36 hour visit so as to promote holidays to Kenya.

Meanwhile, it is reported that Flightstar which has for some time been planning to operate a charter into Mombasa from South Africa has still not been given landing rights.

However, giving a big and most welcome boost to hotel occupancies on the north coast are troops from the US Task Force Operation Provide Relief, German Air Force and others involved in the massive famine relief operation from Mombasa.

Meanwhile, the tourism industry is calling for more aggressive marketing campaigns at the World Travel Market and in Australia, New Zealand, Middle and Far East countries.

In addition, the industry is now bent on creating a new image for Kenya based on recommendations from the very successful Eco-Tourism Workshop at Nakuru with tourists, as well as residents, benefiting from a much improved and less polluted environment.

Vehicles emitting clouds of black exhaust fumes - beware!

In the promotion of Kenya as an Eco-Tourism destination it is proposed that hoteliers and tour operators and others who meet the standards laid down will stand to benefit under a Green Certification scheme as being environmentally acceptable.

The four-day Eco-Tourism Workshop entitled 'Ecotourism and Sustainable Development' was organised by Wildlife Services International in co-operation with the Ministry of Tourism and Wildlife, Kenya Wildlife Service; Kenya Association of Tour Operators and African Centre for Technical Studies.

Such has been the impact of its resolutions on the tourism industry at the coast that MCTA, KATO and KAHC are organising an Eco-Tourism Conference, its theme being 'A New Image for Kenya' at Severin Sea Lodge on October 28 commencing 2.45 pm.

The Minister for Tourism and Wildlife, Mr. Noah Katana Ngala, will be guest of honour, and senior government officials, as well as those connected with the tourism industry are being invited to participate.

It is an opportunity for those at the coast to understand more clearly what 'Eco-Tourism' is all about and to form a pressure group of 'decision makers' to act upon resolutions passed.

Speakers will include David Western, President Eco-Tourism Society, who works with Wildlife Conservation International, Nairobi, his subject being 'Eco-Tourism - the Kenya Challenge'; Steve Shelley, Director of Price Waterhouse (Tourism) on 'Marketing and Promotion of Eco-Tourism'; Dr. C. Gakahu, Conservation Biologist with Wildlife Conservation International, who will explain resolutions from the Eco-Tourism Workshop at Nakuru.

Local speakers will include Karl-Heinz Straus, chairman of KATO's Coast sub-committee on 'The Commitment to the Environment by Local Tour Operators', while Andre Janssens will speak on the 'Role of Overseas Tour Operators towards Eco-Tourism'.

Beat Koch, Deputy Chairman, KAHC, Coast, will address the gathering on 'The Role of the Hotel Operation on the Environment'.

The main aim of this conference is to create a general awareness of what was discussed at Nakuru and to join the Eco-Tourism Society of Kenya when it is formed.

NECKERMANN

(Meanwhile, of interest is the fact that on a recent visit to Kenya was Gerhard Schwemmer, Vice President of Neckermann, one of the largest tour operators in Germany.

He intends helping restore Kenya's dented image and after updating his own impressions will start a press campaign detailing the positive aspects apparent in the country.

He said 'it is in our mutual interest that we solve problems which might affect tourism. I have full confidence in the further development of the infrastructure and of an increase in business again'.

Reference was made at the MCTA meeting to the delegation of European tour operators led by Martin Brackenbury, President of the International Federation of Tour Operators, who were in Kenya recently to discuss issues of common interest with leaders in the tourist industry and government officials, the main areas of concern being harassment of tourists by beach boys and general hygiene in hotels.

Mr. Brackenbury is quoted as saying that 'negative publicity in the overseas media had seriously dented Kenya's image. He predicted that the number of tourists coming to Kenya would drop significantly next year because of adverse publicity and other factors unless quickly addressed'.

PROFESSOR CARTWRIGHT

One of the outcomes is that Professor Cartwright, a Thomson's Medical Advisor has been invited to come and do tests and research on water systems.

His report is eagerly awaited by the industry which will act accordingly.

Meanwhile, the tourist industry at the coast was overjoyed to hear that a loan of US Dollars 200 million to finance the second Mzima Pipeline to Mombasa had been negotiated, while another loan will finance the rehabilitation of existing works to provide a temporary solution to the recurring water shortage at the coast.

The Mombasa Water Pipeline Board is also being revived to oversee the implementation of water projects in the Coast Province.

BIRD'S EYE VIEW ...

ITS BIRD TALK AT SERENA: Serena Beach Hotel's resident parrot, 'Kasuku', makes friends with Soraya Jannohamed, a visitor from Nairobi. Kasuku who talks to young and old alike is the focus of guests who stop by for a 'chat'.

ZWANZIG künstlerisch veranlagte Frauen der talentierten "Rang Rekha" Gruppe haben Tausende von Stunden an dem Riesen-Rangoli nach einem Entwurf von Vibha Shah und Mrs. Sweta M. Malde gearbeitet. Das Bodengemälde dieser Rangoli-Ausstellung im Ratna Square Shopping Center in Nyali stellt in sechs Segmenten die großen Religionen der Welt dar. Der Erlös der Ausstellung wird zugunsten der Tudor Junior Academy (Kindergarten und Primarschule) für behinderte, vor allem querschnittsgelähmte Kinder verwendet.

"RANGOLI" Ausstellung im Ratna Square zugunsten behinderter Kinder

RANGOLI-Bilder findet man in vielen indischen Privathäusern während dem Hindu-Lichterfest "Diwali", das am 25. Oktober beginnt.

Rangoli heißt wörtlich übersetzt "Farbenmuster" und ist eine dekorative Form indischer Kunst, ein "Bodengemälde", hergestellt aus gefärbtem Reismehl. Es ist eine alte Tradition, aber im Laufe der Zeit wurde ein moderner Rangoli-Stil entwickelt, wie er auch im Ratna Square Shopping Center in Nyali bewundert werden kann.

Die Ausstellung wurde am 17. Oktober offiziell eröffnet und dauert bis zum 25. Oktober. Besichtigung täglich von 9 bis 20 Uhr mit kurzer Mittagspause.

Dieses Jahr will das Rangoli im Ratna Square die Aufmerksamkeit auf die Tudor Junior Academy (Kindergarten und Primarschule) lenken, die querschnittsgelähmte und andere Kinder, die als Folge von Hirnverletzungen vor, während oder nach der Geburt geistig oder körperlich behindert sind, aufnimmt. Zur Zeit werden in dieser Schule zwölf spastisch gelähmte Kinder betreut und fünfzehn behinderte Kinder zwischen 3-5 Jahren werden soweit ausgebildet, daß einige von ihnen später normale Schulen besuchen können.

Es werden auch "Mutter und Kind" Gruppen durchgeführt, damit die Beteiligten lernen, wie man mit behinderten Kindern umgeht und sie therapeutisch fördern kann. Es hat sich sogar herausgestellt, daß einige der Behinderten intelligenter sind als normale Kinder.

Das Finanzierungskomitee rechnet damit, durch diese

Lehrerin an der Aga Khan Sekundarschule, assistiert von Mrs. Sweta M. Malde, die vor allem für die Ränder und Abgrenzungen verantwortlich war. Über zwei Monate lang hat Mrs. Shah zusammen mit zwanzig Frauen daran gearbeitet. Aus zwölf Grundfarben wurden 240 Schattierungen gemischt.

Das Thema des Rangoli heißt "Die großen Religionen der Welt". In sechs Segmenten wird je eine Religion vorgestellt:

1. HINDUISMUS: - eine alte pantheistische Religion in Indien. a) Wischnu, Laxmi, Brahma. b) Krishna und Balarama. c) Vrmdavana Tempel, umgeben von Pfauen und Om, Symbol des Hinduismus.

2. JAINISMUS: - nicht nur eine der ältesten Religionen, sondern eine Lebensweise mit strenger Selbstdisziplin. a) 14 Träume von Trisatmata. b) die Geburt von Bhagavan Mahavira. c) Ranakpur Shikhar, ein Wallfahrtsort, eingefaßt mit Elefanten und dem Jain-Swastika.

3. BUDDHISMUS: - mit dem Hinduismus verwandt. a) eine Pagode mit dem Goldenen Buddha. b) lachender Buddha. c) Stupa, mit Lebensrad, Symbol des Buddhismus, und Drachen.

4. JUDENTUM: - älter als alle anderen Religionen. a) Noah und die Arche. b) die Geburt Moses. c) eine Synagoge, mit Löwen und Davidsstern.

5. CHRISTENTUM: - die größte Religion der Welt. a) Kreuzigung Jesu. b) Krippenszene. c) Petersdom in Rom, eingefaßt mit Kreuzen als Symbol der Christenheit.

6. ISLAM: - die jüngste der großen Religionen. a) die Kaaba. b) beim Gebet. c) die grüne Moschee in Medina mit den Symbolen Mond, Stern und Kamel.

Ein Besuch der Rangoli-Ausstellung ist sehr zu empfehlen und hilft überdies behinderten Kindern. Schade ist nur, daß ein solches Kunstwerk, das in Tausenden von Arbeitsstunden mit viel Talent und großer Sorgfalt hergestellt worden ist, nach der Ausstellungszeit mit dem Besen weggewischt wird!

Deutsch, Französisch, Englisch, Italienisch und Spanisch im HOTEL INTER-CONTINENTAL

SEIT DER ERÖFFNUNG vor sieben Jahren führt das Hotel Inter-Continental in Mombasa für seine Angestellten regelmäßig Sprachkurse durch in Deutsch, Französisch, Englisch, Italienisch und Spanisch.

Vor kurzem haben 26 Angestellte in zwei verschiedenen Gruppen einen von Barbara Dancan-Green, Lehrerin von der Alliance Francaise, geführten Französischkurs erfolgreich mit Diplom abgeschlossen.

Das Hotel offeriert als Anreiz Geldpreise für die Kandidaten mit den besten Noten. Die Gewinner waren Aggrey Baraza, Rezeptionist, auf dem ersten und Nebert Chamwada, Assistent des Oberkellners im Vasco da Gama Restaurant, auf dem zweiten Platz.

Galadiner für deutsche Reisefachleute im Diani Reef Grand Hotel

EIN FESTESSEN wurde im Le Gourmet Restaurant, das auf französische Küche spezialisiert ist, vom Diani Reef Grand Hotel veranstaltet zu Ehren der deutschen Vertreter von Reise-büros, die von Jahn Reisen und African Tours and Hotels (A.T. and H.) auf Informations-tour durch Kenia eingeladen waren.

Vor dem Essen wurde ihnen ein "Sundowner" offeriert in der wunderschönen Präsidenten-Suite des Hotels mit Blick auf den beleuchteten weißen Sandstrand und den Indischen Ozean.

Dies war die dritte Gruppe von

Reisefachleuten, die Jahn Reisen und A.T. and H. im Rahmen dieser Werbekampagne zur Förderung von Urlaub in Kenia hierherbrachten. In ihrem Aufenthalt war auch eine Safari nach Tsavo-Ost und West mit Übernachtung in der Kilaguni Lodge inbegriffen.

Jahn Reisen in München

Die Gruppe wurde angeführt von Joe Küter, Manager Sales Promotion vom Hauptsitz von Jahn Reisen in München. Er gab bekannt, daß die Buchungen für Keniareisen in der Sommersaison ungefähr gleich waren wie im Vorjahr, was jedoch nur durch besonders günstige Sonderangebote möglich war.

Jahn Reisen ist eine Tochtergesellschaft von LTU, der größten Charterfluggesellschaft in Deutschland, der auch ein bedeutendes Reiseunternehmen gehört.

LTU und die Westdeutsche Landesbank bereiten zur Zeit die Übernahme vor von Thomas Cook UK - das älteste Reisebüro der Welt - von der Midland Bank zu einem Preis von nur rund £ 200 Millionen. Das Geschäft sollte noch im Oktober zum Abschluß kommen.

JOE KÜTER, Manager für Verkaufsförderung vom Hauptsitz von Jahn Reisen in München (Mitte), im Diani Reef Grand Hotel, das zu Ehren der von Herrn Küter auf Informations-tour durch Kenia geführten Gruppe deutscher Reisefachleute ein Galadiner im Le Gourmet Restaurant arrangierte. V.l.n.r.: T. Story, stellvertretender Hotel Manager; Ludger Trapp, Reiseleiter von Jahn Reisen an der Südküste; Gertrud Müller, Verkaufsvertreterin von LTU Touristik; Lawrence Orago, Gästebetreuungsmanager im Diani Reef Grand Hotel.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

WORLD TRAVEL MARKET - London: Nov. 17-20, 1992: Don't Be Left Out!

This year's 19th "World Travel Market", the biggest shop window for global tourist destinations will take place in new and larger exhibition premises at the Earl's Court Exhibition Centre, London, U.K. from Tuesday, Nov.17 through to Friday, Nov. 20, 1992.

Business generated at last year's "World Travel Market" was valued at over U.S. $27,000 million, drawing a record 54,000 trade participants from more than 140 countries - clearly KENYA tourism has an important role in marketing its product attractively at this vital show place!

This year COASTWEEK marks its 10th annual "Special Issue" for the "World Travel Market" by joining forces with BUSH DRUM of Munich, Germany, and will produce a 'broadsheet' (page size 32 cms across and 48 cms depth) full-colour newspaper for distribution to exhibitors, delegates, hotel buyers and trade visitors to the Earl's Court Exhibition.

Editorial and Advertising copy deadlines will be Friday, October 30, at the COASTWEEK Nairobi Office, and Saturday, October 31st at the COASTWEEK Mombasa Office.

If your organisation is actively involved in the promotion of Kenya as a tourist destination, or you have a company with quality export produce or goods, we feel sure that you will want to participate in this "Special Issue".

HOTEL INTER*CONTINENTAL CELEBRATE BOMANI CUP WIN

General Manager N. Alouf Thanked For Good Support

WHEN THE HOTEL Inter-Continental football team had a party to celebrate winning the Bomani Cup they invited the hotel's General Manager Mr. N. Alouf, along as guest of honour to thank him for his support.

He not only congratulated them all, but also presented each member with a cash award from management.

They had won this trophy by beating Black Bombers 1 - nil in the finals of a tournament organised to promote football in the location of Bomani.

Participation in the tournament is by invitation only and sixteen clubs were involved most of whom have members who play for Mombasa First Division Clubs.

Said Mr. Alouf 'we recognise the effort of employees in team work and discipline be it on the job or in sport'. Adding 'there is no reason why you cannot be the best team in Kenya'.

He supported their wish of having the Hotel Inter-Continental Football Club registered so that it can join the Mombasa Football Federation.

On hearing from the Team Manager, Mohamed Backy, of the difficulty some employees have in appearing for training sessions, Mr. Alouf asked the Personnel Manager, Ahmed Seif, to arrange duty hours so that attendance can be assured.

Mr. Seif told the GM 'they have always displayed a team spirit and have not been involved in any incidents leading to a fight or abandonment of the game'.

He also mentioned that among those at the finals were many

THE GENERAL MANAGER of Mombasa Inter-Continental Resort, Mr. N. Alouf, is seen with the hotel's victorious football team which won the Bomani Cup. He was guest of honour at a party to celebrate the occasion. There were not only congratulations from Mr. Alouf, but also a cash award for each of them from management, plus the promise of the hotel's continued support.

representatives from the Football Federation and leading personalities in Mombasa who had congratulated the Hotel Inter-Continental team.

Declared the team manager, amid cheers, 'we are doing better than ever!'

HEALTH TIPS

When Drinking Alcohol Is The Most Important Activity In Your Life ...

IF YOU, OR anyone you know, have the following, then you (or they) are alcoholic.

- Feeling an uncontrollable urge to drink
- Drinking is the most important activity in your life
- Drinking, especially in the morning, to stop withdrawal effects (described later)
- Drinking every few hours to make sure there is some alcohol always in the body
- Repeated withdrawal symptoms
- Needing far more alcohol to get drunk than when you first started drinking
- After stopping to drink for a long time, repeated drinking brings back the old drinking habits within days, unlike non alcoholics who need much more time to become alcoholic.

Alcoholics are good at self deception and try hard to hide their habit from others.

They often do not accept that they drink too much and may refuse to accept help for their problem.

Relatives, friends and others get baffled and despite mounting evidence to the alcoholic, from social and health problems, that drinking is bad for them they still persist in getting sloshed.

At times they appear determined to stop drinking, and may for short periods, but soon start again.

What keeps alcoholics drinking is a source of much debate among researchers. Self-deception as mentioned earlier, persisting social or physical stresses, brain damage, internal and external cues, withdrawal effects and personality problems all play a part.

To escape on these, the alcoholics may continue drinking because the circumstances that caused the habit in the first place are still present, such as marital problems.

Sometimes it is difficult to tell whether the problems, example marital, or the drinking began first.

Secondly, up to 60 percent of alcoholics have been found after special investigations to have brain damage.

This is thought to negate the alcoholics ability to make and stick to decisions such as keeping off booze.

Certain cues also play a part.

Externally, the alcoholic appetite for sozzle may be whetted when with certain friends, or is in the bar or even a favourite chair.

Internally, such moods as sadness or excitement may stimulate them to have a few drinks.

Withdrawal symptoms are unpleasant.

When the alcoholic has these, usually in the morning, but at any time the alcohol level in the blood reduces, he feels nauseated, may vomit, is anxious and trembles wildly.

He may be unable to button up his shirt or even hold a glass.

The effects can become quite serious, and are often severe enough to scare him from quitting the bottle.

Lastly, people with personality problems, especially psychopaths, who seem to fear and care for no one, may drink and keep to it as part of their character.

As a rule alcoholics use beverages of increasing

by Dr. Eric Maina

alcohol concentrations as they deteriorate, partly to get high quicker.

Hence one may start off with beer and progress to using changes and other strong, cheap drinks.

Women, for some reasons, need less alcohol taken for shorter durations than men to become alcoholic.

How then are alcoholics helped?

In my experience, alcoholics are a difficult group to treat.

Research findings also paint a gloomy picture of their chances of recovery, mainly because they often refuse to stop drinking.

Quitting alcohol has immediate benefits and many of the associated problems are reversed or reduced considerably.

Physically they make rapid gains and socially, for instance, the best news a family would ever get was that their alcoholic member has quit alcohol altogether.

Next week I will discuss specific things that are done to help alcoholics.

Bandari To Clash With Congo Boys

BANDARI FOOTBALL CLUB, Coast's representative in the Kenya National Football League, will play two friendly matches against Congo Boys and Feisal at Mombasa Municipal Stadium tomorrow and on Sunday respectively.

The Kenya Football Federation (Kff) Coast branch secretary Ali Mbarak Ali said they have arranged the two matches for Mombasa and Coast fans to watch top flight soccer this weekend.

Mbarak promised to try to organise other matches involving top clubs all over the Province. He said in future matches will be organised to take place in Kwale, Kilifi, Tana River, Taita Taveta and Lamu.

Mbarak appealed to club officials to maintain good relationship with the branch officials for the soccer development in Coast Province. He said the branch would treat all clubs fairly and asked Coast clubs to realise there was no club which is superior than the other.

Meanwhile, the branch fixture secretary Suleiman Sadik Sumra announced yesterday that there will be five Coast Premier League (CPL) matches on the car this weekend and one game to be played next mid-week.

Releasing the fixtures, Sumra disclosed that four matches for zone 'A' will be played tomorrow and on Sunday while one zone 'B' outing is programmed for tomorrow. The mid-week local derby will be held at Tononoka ground on Wednesday.

Tomorrow, Hotspurs of Majengo are favoured against Taveta Sisal Estate when the two teams clash at Khamis School ground. The same day, Kisite of Kwale will be hosting Burnley Amateur at Mshambweni ground.

On Sunday, Mombasa Stars who

Special Report By

have been recording moral-boosting victories at late, face an acid test against Kwale Simba at Khamis ground. Kiweke will play against Taveta Simba at Tiwi ground the same day.

On Wednesday, all roads will lead to Tononoka ground where Black Panther clash with Lake Warriors. Both teams being former superleague sides, fans will flock to watch which team has still top flight soccer touch.

In an only zone 'B' match drawn for this weekend, Action Boys of Malindi will be at their Malindi Municipal Stadium to meet Finika from 4.30 pm.

COAST LADIES WEEKEND HOCKEY FESTIVAL

FOR ALL HOCKEY LOVERS, a reminder that the M.S.C. Coast Province hockey tournament takes place this weekend. Venue is the M.S.C. and entrance is free. Eight teams have now confirmed participation so the event promises to be a good one. Seen here are the host ladies team with the Kenya Junior Ladies team from Nairobi, whom they recently played during a weekend of matches at the beginning of October. Sponsors of the M.S.C. tournament are Auto Cool (Nairobi) and Mutiso Menzes (Architects and Planning Consultants).

BRILLIANT SHIRAZ SHABIRALI HOISTS HATIM KARIMJEE TO SIX WICKET WIN

A BRILLIANT unbeaten century (101 not out) by Shiraz Shabirali hoisted Hatim Karimjee to a six wickets win over Coast Gymkhana writes 'Zed' Fazal.

Gymkhana batted first and managed only 156/9 thanks to some purposeful batting by Kirit T who scored a painstaking 65 (seven fours) and Mohamed J scored a fine 42. None of the other batsmen even reached double figures.

Kutub Gulamabbas bowled with fire and conceded only 12 runs off nine overs with one wicket. Shiraz Esmail continued his form with two/18 while Moiz took 2/20.

Chasing a moderate total, Hatim Karimjee lost two wickets and were 11/2 - both openers falling to Raju (2/22). That was the main success Gymkhana had - as from then onwards, Shiraz took full command and played an array of strokes that saw 10 fours and four sixes.

He twice put on 63 runs partnership - first with Mufaddal (20) for the third wicket and then Mustansir Khanbhai (11) for the fourth wicket.

At 137/4, Kutub joined Shiraz and hammered a quick 19 not out to see Hatim Karimjee home at 159/4 scored off only 24.5 overs at a healthy average of 6.49 runs per over.

Elsewhere, young schoolboy; Qayam Mahdi scored a superb unbeaten 88 and in partnership with Hasnain Alidina who scored an splendid unbeaten 74 lifted Jaffery Sports Club from the doldrums of possible defeat to a fine win by 161 runs against Patel Sports Club.

Jaffery openers; Munir Merali (21) and Mohamed A.P. (36) put on 44 runs in 18 balls - but then fine bowling by Rohit Patel (2/41), Ronak Patel (2/39) and Dilip Patel (3/31) saw Jaffery struggling on 116/8.

But then, Qayam coming at Number Ten with solid support from Hasnain, first consolidated and then accelerated the score to 265/8 with an unbroken stand of 149 for the ninth wicket.

Qayam's temperament and courage defied his age and it was an innings befitting a one-down batsman. In reply, Patel Sports Club wilted for 104 all out.

The only batsman to play well were Sanjay (30) and Nazir (21). Once again it was the spin duo of Alidina brothers - Husein 3/14 and Hasnain 3/19 taking the bowling honours.

In the third match, Union Cricketers beat Cutchi Lewa by five wickets at HKSC ground. Cutchi Lewa scored 139 all out of which Rajesh played well and scored 34 and towards the end, Rawji knocked up 29 while Vijay scored 21.

Abbas Nazerali 3/25, Salim Khaku 2/18 and young spinner Zuheir Ladak 2/38 bowled well. Union scored the runs off 32.2 overs reaching 140/5.

Opener Mehboob Kassamali (42 not out) played the anchor role while Ebrahim Jaffer (28), Abbas Nazerali (21) and Mehboob Virjee (18) provided the thrust of scoring-rate. For Cutchi Lewa, Ravji bowled well taking 1/13 off eight overs and Mawji took 1/12.

Umpires were: Husein Story at CG, Hamza Jiwajee at JSC and Bashir Panju at HKSC.
